

Who is Who

Biographic Information

Gerd Antes, Cochrane center, UK

Dr Martijntje Bakker (1969), Dutch, Health Science, Health Education; Policy worker with the Public Health Fund in The Hague; co-editor with Johan Mackenbach of 'Reducing Inequalities in Health: A European Perspective' published by Routledge in 2002

Tim Baxter, British, career administrative civil servant. Currently Team Leader in the Private Sector Projects Team, Department of Health, London, responsible for policy within the Department on referring NHS patients overseas and on bringing overseas clinical teams into England to treat NHS patients. Previous posts have included responsibility for tobacco control and running the Inquiry into the Personality Disorder Unit, Ashworth Special Hospital (a high security psychiatric hospital in North-West England).

Dr Robert Beaglehole (1945), New Zealander, Public Health Physician, trained in medicine in New Zealand and then in epidemiology and public health at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is on leave from his position as Professor of Community Health at the University of Auckland, New Zealand. He is currently working as a public health adviser in the Department of Health Service Provision at WHO, Geneva on strengthening public health capacity in developing countries. He has published several books on epidemiology and public health.

Philip C. Berman (1947), British, Director European Health Management Association. Recently completed study for the European Commission on the impact of EU directives on health services in the European Union, focusing in particular on Germany, Spain, the UK and Sweden. A major new 3 year project began in March 2001 on managing services for older people". Has been World Bank and WHO consultant, advising on healthcare management strategies in Poland, Hungary, Romania and Turkey. Member of the Editorial Board of International Journal of Health Planning and Management; Fellow Royal Society of Medicine.

Professor Nino Binns is Regulatory Director for McNeil Consumer Nutritionals, a member of the Johnson & Johnson family of companies that comprise some of the leading healthcare companies in the world. McNeil markets Benecol cholesterol-reducing foods and Splenda (sucralose-based) low-calorie table-top sweeteners in Europe. Professor Binns has a PhD in nutrition from University of London and a visiting chair in nutrition at the 5 star-rated Northern Ireland Centre for Diet & Health, University of Ulster at Coleraine in Northern Ireland. She has over 20 years of experience in nutrition and regulatory affairs at leading food and ingredient companies including Coca-Cola and Pfizer Inc.

Prof. Sven Bremberg (1943), Swede, Social Paediatrics. Main responsibility for the development of a Swedish child and adolescent public health strategy. Expert at the Swedish National Institute of Public Health and Associate Professor at Department of Public Health Sciences, Karolinska Institute. Epidemiological and Interventions studies in Child and Adolescence disease prevention and health promotion. <http://www.phs.ki.se/cahp/>

Prof Dr Reiner Buchegger (1941): studies of business administration and economics; University of Linz, Institute of Economics; since 2002 head of the Institute for Care and Health Systems Research; main areas of research: applied econometrics, health, family

Mag. Gabi Burgstaller (1963) Austria, Lawyer, Deputy Governor of Land Salzburg responsible for health affairs; legal studies, Member of the Provincial Parliament of Land Salzburg; Leader of the social democratic faction in the Provincial Parliament, Chair of the social democratic party of Land Salzburg.

David Byrne (1947), Ireland, Law, Barrister, Member of the European Commission, Health & Consumer Protection, Member of Cabinet Subcommittees on Social Inclusion, on European Affairs, and on Child Abuse, Member of the Council of State, 1997-1999 Attorney General, 1990-1997 Member, ICC International Court of Arbitration, Paris, 1995-1996 Member Constitution Review Group, 1988-1997 Member, National Committee, International Chamber of Commerce, 1974-1992 Member Executive Committee, Irish Maritime Law Association.

Dr John M. Cachia (1958), Maltese, Medicine, Public Health, Health Service Management; Director Institutional Health responsible for Hospital Services in the Ministry of Health in Malta; Consultant in Public Health; Lecturer in Public Health and Health Service Management, University of Malta; President of the Malta Association of Public Health Medicine.

Dr. Beatriz Castillo (1962), Spanish, Pharmacy, Ph. D., Specialist in Clinical Pharmacy and Drug Information, Specialist in Public Health, Head of the Madrid Health Office at the Madrid City Council, Technical Advisor of Dr. Viñals, Mayor of Health of the city of Madrid, Co-ordinator of Madrid Urban Health, Representative of the Spanish Healthy Cities Network in the WHO.

Mukesh Chawla, PhD, Senior Human Development Economist, Europe and Central Asia Region, World Bank.

Dr Patricia Clarke (1969), Irish; cross-border research and policy analysis; BSc, MSc, PhD; research officer, Centre for Cross Border Studies, Northern Ireland; previously researcher with the London Ambulance Service NHS Trust, UK; author of a number of reports on cross-border cooperation in Ireland.

Dr. Françoise Cluzeau, St George's Hospital Medical School Department of Public Health Sciences, UK.

Alain Coheur (1964), Belgian, Degree on Public Health (specialization on hospital management) and economics. Director European and International Affairs, Socialist Mutual Health Funds. Former projects director at the International Association of Mutual Health Funds (AIM), Coordinator of the Euroregional project Meuse-Rhin for health care since 1997.

Collaborator at the Liege University, Faculty for Social and Economy sciences. Expert specialized for ILO on health and micro insurance.

Strasimir Cucic, MD (1966), Dutch; coordinator international program CBO – Dutch Institute for Healthcare Improvement, Board Member European Society for Quality in Health Care, Member Dutch International Health Platform; worked as consultant on quality improvement with World Health Organization, World Bank, European Commission, Dutch and a number of foreign Governments.

Prof. Mia Defever, (1945), Ph.D. in sociology from the University of Leuven. Professor, School of Public Health, Medical School, Catholic University of Leuven. Editor-in-Chief, International Refereed Journal "Health Policy" (Elsevier Science Publishers), Member of the Flemish Health Council (Vlaamse Gezondheidsraad), and Fellow, Kellogg International Fellowship Program in Health, W.K. Kellogg Foundation. Experience in comparative health policy analysis of European healthcare systems and health care reforms. Author and co-author of international refereed publications. Collaborator in national and international research projects. Key-note speaker at international conferences and study-visits in Europe, the United States, Latin-America and The People's Republic of China.

Anna Dixon (1972), British,; Lecturer in European Health Policy at the London School of Economics and Political Science and Research Associate with the European Observatory on Health Care Systems; BSc in Social and Political Sciences (1994), MSc (Econ) Health Policy, Planning and Financing (1998); Co-editor of Funding health care: options for Europe co-winner of the 2002 Baxter Award.

Dorothee Eckertz (1968), German, Economist, Europe and Central Asia Region, World Bank.

Dipl.-Ing. Helmut Eder (1955), Austrian; Agronomist; Junior Head of Division for European Integration Policy and Common Agriculture Policy. Liaison Officer to Brussels.

Dr Anna Ferro-Luzzi, MD (1934), Italian, Director (1980-2001) Unit of Human Nutrition at National Institute for Research on Foods and Nutrition (INRAN), currently Head WHO Collaboration Centre on Nutrition, Rome, Italy. Medical nutritionist. Member of SCF of European Commission (1989-2000), member/adviser on several consultations/ study groups of FAO and WHO. Editorial responsibilities for several international nutrition journals. Research interests: links between diet and chronic diseases, nutritional surveillance, nutrition policy, nutritional epidemiology, population studies on human adaptation to chronic energy deficiency and agro-climatic seasonality in Third World countries.

Dr. Armin Fidler (1958), Austrian, graduated from Innsbruck University Medical School in 1984, clinical specialization in Family Medicine in 1988. Diploma in Tropical Medicine and Hygiene from the Bernhard Nocht Institute in Hamburg. 1988-90 Graduate School at Harvard (MPH in International Health and MSc. in Health Policy and Management). Joined Epidemic Intelligence Service (EIS) at the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta. From 1990 to 1993 staff member of WHO, assigned as Inter-Country Adviser for Mexico and Central America. Joined World Bank in 1993 as a Public Health Specialist in the Latin America and Caribbean Region. In 1997 promoted to Senior Health Specialist in the Europe and Central Asia Region (ECA). Since 2000 Health Sector Manager for the ECA Region, responsible for all Bank Health operations, strategy, and staff management and serving in the Bank's Health, Nutrition and Population Board which guides worldwide Bank strategy and health policy. Adjunct faculty appointment at George Washington University School of Public Health.

Dr Josep Figueras (1959), MD, MPH, PhD, Spanish, Head of the Secretariat and Research Director, European Observatory on Health Care Systems. Head, European Centre for Health Policy and regional adviser for health systems analysis, WHO, Regional Office for Europe.

Gill Fine, British, Company Nutritionist for Sainsbury's Supermarkets. MSc in Nutrition from Queen Elizabeth College in 1981. Worked for the British Nutrition Foundation as Education Director; was closely involved with the UK Government's Health of the Nation initiative as a member of the Nutrition Task Force's Education Working Group & the Project Team on Education Guidelines. Currently a member of various committees, including the UK Government's Scientific Advisory Committee on Nutrition, the BBSRC's Diet & Health Research Programme Committee & the Department of Health's '5 a Day Pilot' Project Steering Group.

Dr. Mag. Ursula Fronaschütz (1966); Austrian; Studies of Economics and Business Administration; Federal Ministry of social Security and Generations: 1993-1996: Health Attaché at the Austrian Permanent Representation to the E.U. (Brussels); since 1998: Head of Department VII/B/8-Health Economics and Quality Management (Vienna).

Dr. Pietro Folino-Gallo, Università Cattolica EURO-Medicines, Istituto di Igiene, Rome, Italy.

Pascal Garel (1966), French, Political Studies, European Law, Hospital Management; Director for European and International affairs at the French Hospital Federation; Deputy Secretary General of HOPE (Standing Committee of the Hospitals of the European Union).

Dr. med. Steffen Gass (1962), German, Medicine, National Association of Statutory Health Insurance Physicians (NASHIP), Department for Service Provision and Quality Assurance, Dermatologist, Total Quality Management Auditor, responsible for quality assurance, quality management, prevention, rehabilitation and psychotherapy at the NASHIP

Roy L. Gentry (1954) - US citizen, over 20 years residency in Europe (Belgium, Spain, France) - European Government Affairs Specialist - Linguistics / Soviet and Eastern European Studies, University of Oregon (USA) - EU Affairs Director, Consilient Health, Ltd - Formerly: European Affairs Manager, the EU Committee of the American Chamber of Commerce in Belgium.

George Gouvras, PhD, MSc, DIC, DiplEng, (1948), Greek-British, Mechanical and Electrical Engineering (Athens), Nuclear Reactor Science and Engineering, Radiation Protection (London); European Commission, Directorate- General for Health and Consumer Protection, Head of Task Force on Health Security. Head of unit and adviser (since 1989) in public health and health and safety at work. Seconded to Greek Ministry of Health and Welfare (2000 - 2001), Head of Task Force on the Reform of the Greek National Health System. Publication of over 50 scientific papers, articles and reviews in the areas of radiation protection, health and safety at work, and public health.

Constance Hanniffy, Vice Chair person of Economic and Social Committee, European Committee of the Regions.

Mag Herbert Haupt (1947) Austria, Federal Minister for Health, veterinary medicine, third President of the Austrian Parliament (1994 - 1996), member of the Austrian Parliament (1986 - 2000), member of the party executive of the province of Carinthia, executive director of the Austrian Freedom Party in Carinthia (1995 - 1997). member of the national party executive of the Austrian Freedom Party, member of the executive committee of the Austrian Freedom Party.

Heidi Hautala, (1955) is a Finnish member of the European Parliament since 1995. She holds a Master's degree in horticulture from the University of Helsinki, and has worked as a journalist. In the European Parliament she has taken a wide-range interest in public health issues and is currently chair of the Public Health intergroup. She is a board member of the HIV/AIDS Foundation in Finland and chairperson of the Finnish Service Centre for Development Co-operation. She was president of the Committee of Women's Rights in 1998-99 and the co-president of the Greens/EFA Group in 1999-2001.

Professor Christer Hogstedt, Head of Research Department, National Institute of Public health, Sweden.

Prof. Manfred Horvat (1941), Austrian, Mechanical Engineering; Director of the Bureau for International Research and Technology Co-operation (BIT) the Austrian liason organisation for international and European research and technology programmes, initiatives and actions; Professor for „International Research and Technology Co-operation“ at Vienna University of Technology; Chairman of the 2001 EU Framework Programme Monitoring Panel.

Pavel Hrdlicka, Principal for e-business, IBM Czech Republic, Ltd.

Michael Hübel, M.A. (1962), German, living and working in Luxembourg; Political Science; European Commission, Health and Consumer Protection Directorate General, Public Health Directorate, Luxembourg. He joined the European Commission in 1995, and started in the DG on Employment and Social Affairs. He is now working on Public health policy development, and on its links to other Community policies related to health. Previously, he was European representative of the German Red Cross and worked for different organisations in the social and youth field.

Professor David Hunter (1950), British, political science, medical sociology; Professor of Health Policy and management, School for Health, University of Durham; graduated with  $\text{F}^1$  class honours at the University of Edinburgh (1974), completed a PhD also at the University of Edinburgh (1979); Honorary Member of the Faculty of Public Health Medicine, Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians of

Edinburgh; Special Advisor to WHO (European Region and HQ); Member of the Policy Advisory Group, Health Development Agency; Member of the Public Health Evidence Steering Group, Health Development Agency; Council Member, UK Public Health Association; former Director, Nuffield Institute for Health, University of Leeds (1989-1997); former Board Member and President, European Health Management Association (1990-1998); Specialist Advisor to the House of Commons Health Committee's Inquiry into Public Health (2001)

Dr. Christine Huttin, EIASM European Institute for Advanced studies in Management, Brussels, Belgium.

Karen Jennings, EPSU Standing Committee for health and social services.

Maris Jesse (1968), Estonian, MD, Master's student in Health Policy and Finance at London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine; Director of Estonian Health Insurance Fund 1997-2002

Anna Jung, German, Agriculture Engineer, Director General, European Food Information Council (EUFIC) in Brussels. She is responsible for the strategic development of EUFIC, the positioning of the organisation through extensive communications programmes and the creation of partnership with the most credible European scientists and institutions.

Monika Kaiser, M. A. (1969), German, Researcher / Project Manager; Gesellschaft für Versicherungswissenschaft und -gestaltung e.V., Main areas of research: social policy and social security system reform in Central and Eastern Europe, health care systems, social inclusion. Project management of Phare, Tacis, World Bank projects on social policy and social security with a focus on Central and Eastern Europe.

Anu Kasmel (1951), Estonian, Medical and Social Sciences, Director of the Estonian Centre for Health Education and Promotion; Board Member of the International Union for the Health Education and Promotion; Estonian representative of the WHO/EURO Health Promotion Development Committee.

Beate Kettlitz, German, Food Officer at BEUC - the European Consumers' Organisation. Food chemistry studies at Humboldt University in Berlin; special professional certificate in the field of hygiene practice in 1978. Before joining BEUC, worked at the Hygiene Inspection Services in Potsdam (in charge of foodstuffs) and at the Regional Hygiene Institute of Potsdam.

Boris Kramberger (1956), Slovenian, Social Health Insurance, Social Science, Communicology and Public Health; Adviser to the general director of Health Insurance Institute of Slovenia (Public Relations and Information, Strategic Planning); responsible for several international comparative studies in the field of health care and health insurance; head of Total Quality Management project in Health Insurance Institute of Slovenia; member of Executive Board of Health Insurance Institute of Slovenia.

Dr. Günther Leiner (1939), Austria, M.D., an internal specialist, medical superintendent at the Institute of Rheumatology, Rehabilitation and Psychosomatic Medicine at Bad Gastein, formerly Member of the Austrian Parliament and speaker of the conservative party in the Health Committee. President of the International Forum Gastein.

Markku Lehto, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Social Affairs and Health, Finland

Dr. Peter Liese (1965); German; Doctor of Medicine; Medical Thesis at the Institute for Human Genetics, Bonn; Member of European Parliament since 1994, Group of the EPP (Christian Democrats), Chairman of the EPP working group on bioethics in the EP; EPP/ED Coordinator in the Temporary Committee on Human Genetics and other new technologies of modern medicine (2001); Committee on the Environment, Public Health and Consumer Policy, Member; Committee on Industry, External Trade, Research and Energy, Substitute; Delegation for relations with countries of Central America and Mexico, Vice-Chairman; member of the Central Committee of German Catholics since 1996.

Paul Lincoln (1956), English, Public Health, Health Promotion; Chief Executive of the UK National Heart Forum based in London and Public Health Policy consultant; Has been involved with developing public health policy, strategy and actions in a wide range of areas at international, national and local levels.

Dr Karen Lock. British. Public Health Doctor and M.R.C Research Fellow, ECOHOST, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine. Education: Clinical Medicine (Oxford), MA (UCLA), MSc Public Health

(LSHTM). Special Interests: Health impact assessment, Food, agriculture and health linkages, evidence for public health policy making.

Dr Tim Lobstein (1949) British and American, Consultant on food policy; Director of the UK Food Commission and European Coordinator of the International Association of Consumer Food Organizations; member of UK Government Advisory Panel on Food Authenticity; NGO observer to WTO, OECD, WHO and Codex meetings; expert consultant to WHO Regional Office for Europe.

Dr Simon de Lusignan (1957), British, Medicine, General Practitioner and Senior Lecturer in General Practice, General Practice and Health Informatics; Senior Partner Woodbridge Hill Surgery, Guildford and Head of Primary Care Informatics Group in the Department of General Practice and Primary Care, St. George's Hospital Medical School, London.

Akiko Maeda, PhD, Lead Health Specialist, Europe and Central Asia Region, World Bank

Isabel de la Mata Barranco, Ministerio de Sanidad y Consumo, Subdirectora de Programas Sanitarios Sociosanitarios y de Acreditación, Calidad y Prestaciones Dirección General de Planificación Sanitaria.

Dr. Jozika Maucec Zakotnik, Ministry of Health, State Secretary, Slovenia.

Kevin McCarthy, Health Research Directorate, Directorate-General for Research, European Commission, Brussels, scientific officer for research related to public health under the specific Research Programme "Quality of life and management of living resources" (1998-2002) of the 5th Framework Programme for RTD, and policy oriented research under the 6th Framework Programme in the area of public health.

Prof. Mark McCarthy (1944), UK, physician; Public Health Research Group, Department of Epidemiology and Public Health, University College London. Member of RTD panel for public health, 5th FP. Secretary, Section for Health Policy & Practice, European Public Health Association. Chair, European Working Group, Faculty of Public Health Medicine, UK.

Karen McColl (1965), British, Consultant in nutrition and public health policy, BSc and Master of Public Health (MPH), involved in researching and writing various reports about nutrition and public health at the European level.

Prof. Martin McKee, British, Medicine, Professor of European Public Health, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, Research Director, European Observatory on Health Care Systems

Nata Menabde, World Health Organization, Regional Office for Europe

Dr. Bernard Merkel (1949), British, Political Theory, Social Science; Head of Unit in the Public Health Directorate of the European Commission in Luxembourg. Responsible for the development and analysis of policy, in particular in relation to assessment of health interventions and technologies, priority setting, pharmaceuticals and quality assurance and best practice; Visiting Fellow at LSE Health in the London School of Economics and Honorary Senior Lecturer at the London School of Hygiene; member of the Editorial Board of Eurohealth and author of a number of articles on European health policy.

Antony Morgan (1960), British, Epidemiologist, Head of Research and Information for the Health Development Agency in England. Originally an applied chemist, later trained in information science and epidemiology and has work in Public Health in the English NHS for the last 17 years, at district, regional and national level. He is an honorary member of the Faculty of Public Health Medicine. Currently responsible for leading a team of research and information specialists to deliver on one of the HDA's key functions to develop an evidence base for public health with a key emphasis on getting that evidence into practice and to finding out 'What works?' to promote health and reduce inequalities. Special areas of interest and expertise include social action for health (using the concept of social capital) and development of inequalities targets and indicators for programme planning, implementation and evaluation.

Ladislav Mravec (1946), Czech Republic, Health Care Financing, Information Technology, Diplomat Chief Executive Officer of IZIP Ltd, representing General Health Insurance Fund of Czech Republic Internet Access to Patient's Medical Information, Financing of Health Care System in the Czech Republic

Prof. Ingrid Mur-Veeman, Maastricht University Dept of Health Organisation Policy and Economics, Netherlands.

Toomas Palu (1963), Estonian, MD (Tartu), MPA (Harvard); Sr. Health Specialist, Human Development Department, European and Central Asia Region, World Bank; Member of Management Board, Estonian Health Insurance Fund.

Piera Poletti (1955), Director of CEREF- Centre of Research and Advanced Education, Padua, Italy. Consultant of the Autonome Provinz Bozen, Suedtirol and for Italian Local Health Authorities for Quality Improvement in the health system. Research on health organization development and patients' involvement in health care. Chair of the 3rd and the 4th European Forum on Quality Improvement. Member of the The Italian Society for Quality in Health Care.

Dr. Octavi Quintana Trias MD, Director, Health Research Directorate, Directorate-General for Research, European Commission, Brussels. Responsible for health and medical research components of the specific Research Programme "Quality of life and management of living resources" (1998 to 2002), under the 5th Framework Programme for RTD. Responsible for health and medical research components of Thematic Priority 1 of the new 6th Framework Programme for RTD - "Life sciences: genomics and biotechnology" (2002-2006).

Dr Mike Rayner (1955) British, Director, British Heart Foundation Health Promotion Research Group, University of Oxford; Chair: Nutrition Expert Group, European Heart Network; Treasurer: Joint Health Claims Initiative, UK; Trustee: National Heart Forum and Sustain: the alliance for better food and farming (UK).
(For more details see www.dphpc.ox.ac.uk/bhfhprg)

Prof. Dinis dos Reis Miranda, University Hospital Groningen, Effectiveness and efficiency of Intensive care units, NL

Dr. Reinhard Resch (1955), Physician, Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, Head of Institute of Physical medicine and rehabilitation, hospital krams, lower Austria; head of therapiezentrum dr.resch, krams; founder of weinkur dr.resch®, research in wine & health, member of Österreichische Gesellschaft für Physikalische Medizin und Rehabilitation and American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

Dr Aileen Robertson, Regional Adviser for Nutrition, Nutrition and Food Security Programme, World Health Organization Regional Office for Europe, Copenhagen. Previously: WHO Nutrition Consultant, Former Yugoslavia, Director, Post-Graduate Nutrition and Dietetics Centre, Scotland; Chief Dietician II Highland Health Board, Scotland.

Jean-Marie Robine, INSERM, FR

Tamsin Rose (1969), English, BA Hons in International Relations, General Secretary of the European Public Health Alliance, a network of 85 NGOs in 21 European countries committed to promoting health. Previous experience of running a network of local authorities, managing an EU funded east-west cooperation programme, working as a journalist and communications trainer.

Dr Magdalene Rosenmüller (1960), German, Medical Doctor, MBA. Professor at IESE Business School, Spain. Teaching in the MBA and executive education, main academic focus on management in the health sector. Large consulting and research experience in health system reforms in Central Eastern Europe and Latin America, European health policy and health and enlargement issues. Between 2000 and 2002 health economist at the World Bank's Latin American and Caribbean Regional Office, Washington. Member of the French and Spanish Medical Chambers. Member of the Board of EHMA, the European Health Management Association.

Dr Andrzej Rys, graduated from Medical School in Cracow, specialized in radiology. In 1991 has established and was running till 1997 the School of Public Health of Jagiellonian University, first such institution in CEEC. A member of the board of ASPHER (Association of School of Public Health in European Region). In 1997-1999 he was a director of city health department. This time he developed a master plan and implemented a reform of outpatient clinics in Cracow. In 1995 –1999 a Polish director of "Harvard-Jagiellonian Consortium for Health" – a project focus on local governments role in health care. In 1999 – 2001 a deputy ministry of health; new system of emergency medicine, a reform health allied professionals education, a member of Polish-UE negotiation team. Currently working as a consultant with "Health and Management Ltd" in Krakow and for WHO, WB and EAR. Vice president of Institute of Emergency Medicine (NGO).

Camilla Sandvik Knudsen, University of Oslo.

Prof. Pedro J. Saturno (1952), Spanish, physician, Professor of Public Health (University of Murcia, Spain), Visiting Lecturer in Quality Management (Harvard School of Public Health, Boston, USA), member of the Murcia, Spain and International Societies of Quality in Health Care, Director of the EMCA Program (Murcia), Director of the distance learning Master Program in Quality Management in Health Services (University of Murcia).

Fernand Sauer is the Director for Public Health of the European Commission (Directorate-General Health and Consumer Protection) since December 2000. He qualified in pharmacy at the University of Strasbourg. He subsequently received a Masters in European and International Law from the University of Paris II and various post-graduate diplomas in public health, pharmaceutical legislation and European Community Studies. From 1972 to 1979 Mr Sauer held various positions in France as a hospital pharmacist and pharmaceutical inspector at the Ministry of Health. In 1979 he joined the European Commission in Brussels and in 1986 became Head of Pharmaceuticals. He has been involved in the completion of the European Internal Market, trilateral harmonisation of regulatory requirements (ICH) between Europe, the US and Japan, the accession of the Community to the European Pharmacopoeia Convention and the development of pricing transparency and industrial policy in the pharmaceutical sector. He became the first Executive Director of the Agency for the Evaluation of Medicinal Products (EMA) based in London, from September 1994 to November 2000.

Dr Liselotte Schäfer Elinder (1960), Danish, research manager at the National Institute of Public Health in Sweden, associate professor in medical biochemistry, previous research in nutrition, atherosclerosis and cardiovascular diseases, presently responsible for development at national level of health impact assessments, special interest in structural determinants of nutritional health and physical activity.

Dr. Franz Schausberger (1950), Austrian, Senior Lecturer in Austrian history; Governor of Land Salzburg; studies in philosophy, education and English; Dokorate in philosophy; Member of the Provincial Parliament of Land Salzburg; First Vice President of Commission CONST for Constitutional Affairs and European Governance of the Committee of the Regions; and president of the Conference of the Conference of Presidents of the Austrian Länder (Landeshauptmännerkonferenz). Chairman of the Dr. Hans Lechner Research society; Chair of the Dr. Wilfried Haslauer Library.

Lisette Schermer, Health Research Directorate, Directorate-General for Research, European Commission, Brussels, scientific officer for research related to public health under the Programme "Quality of life and management of living resources" (1998-2002) of the 5th Framework Programme for RTD, and policy oriented research under the 6th Framework Programme in the area of public health.

Dr. Markus Schneider (1948), German, Expert in International Health and Social System Comparisons and in Health and Social Accounting, General Director of BASYS.

Chris J. Segaert (1966), Belgian,, deputy advisor at the Dept. of International Relations – Healthcare of the National Institute for Sickness and Invalidity Insurance (RIZIV-INAMI), Art History and social security legislation.

Professor Aris Sissouras (1938) Greek, Mathematics and Operational Research, Head of Health Policy and Planning (University of Patras). Formerly Governor of Social Security Organisation and Director of Institute of Social Policy (1995-2000). Engaged in Government health policy and planning of health reforms, member of Community's High Level Committee on Health and Health Monitoring Programme and evaluation teams in BIOMED, Health Telematics and Quality of Life (Public health and health services) Programmes.

Dr. Hans Stein (1937), German, Lawyer, Government Official, European Liaison Officer at the Federal Ministry for Health (Bonn), Member of the EU High Level Health Committee of the EU Commission, Chairman of the Working Group „EU Internal Market and Health“.

Rosa Suñol, MD, PhD (1953) Spanish, Medical doctor. Specialist in Pneumology and Internal Medicine. Working in Quality Improvement since 1981. Director of the Donabedian Foundation in Spain has support the design of more than 200 quality programs in health and social care. Director of the Donabedian Chair on Quality in Health Care at the Faculty of Medicine. Autonomous University of Barcelona. Special editor of the International Journal for Quality in Health Care. Life member of the International Society of Quality in Health Care. Temporary adviser for Who in projects from 1983-2001

Brian Synnott, European Public Service Union.

Dr. Ir Dominique Teaymans (1953), Belgian, Ph.D in chemical engineering, Director Scientific and Regulatory Affairs at CIAA (European Confederation of the Food and Drink Industries), in Brussels; Invited Professor on Food Industry Management at the ICHEC (Institut Catholique des Hautes Etudes Commerciales) in Brussels.

Dr. Franz Terwey, 1951, German, lawyer, Director European representation of German statutory Social Insurance (since 1993). Director of European Social Insurance Partners Association (since 1997); Director German regional statutory pension fund (Thuringia; 1990 – 1992); Federation of German pension insurance institutions (1981 – 1990); member of: Gesellschaft für Europäische Sozialpolitik (Bonn), European Institute for Social Security (Leuven), Institut de la Protection Sociale Européenne (Paris) and the Club de Genève "Global Social Future" (Geneva).

Dr. Yannis Tountas (1952), Greek, Medical Doctor, Health Promotion, Health Services; Associate Professor of Social Medicine, Medical School, University of Athens, Greece; Director of the University Center for Health Services Research; Director of the Institute for Social and Preventive Medicine; President of the Greek Society for Health Promotion and Education; Head of the Planning Committee for the reform of the health system in Greece.

Dr Eddy Van Doorslaer, Erasmus University Department of Health Policy and Management, Netherlands.

Prof. Dr. Reinhart Waneck (1945) Austria, medical doctor, specialist for radiology, professor for radiology, Secretary of State for Health, since 1985 Head of the Department for Radiology at the Hospital of the „Barmherzigen Schwestern des Hl. Vinzenz von Paul“, Vienna, 1995-1999 medical Director, member of the Austrian Association for Radiology, American Institut of Ultrasound in Medicine, European Society of Cardiovascular and Interventional Radiology, International College of Angiology (FICA), Committee of Austrian Doctors.

Prof. Richard Wilkinson, (1943), British, Social Epidemiologist, Research Professor at University of Nottingham Medical School and visiting Professor at the International Centre for Health and Society, University College, London. Economic History and Epidemiology. Author of Unhealthy Societies: the afflictions of inequality. London 1996; [Kranke Gesellschaften. Springer-Verlag 2001] and: Mind the Gap: Hierarchies, Health and Human Evolution. Weidenfeld & Nicolson, London 2000; and Yale University Press, New Haven, CT. 2001. (Las Desigualdades Perjudican. Critica, Barcelona 2001)

Dr. Jane Wilde, Institute of Public Health Ireland, Director, Royal College of Physicians.

Jude Williams (MSc Health Education), 1952, British. Following a varied career of environmental research, teaching and inner city youth and community development work, Jude spent 10 years working as a NHS director in East London and the City Health Authority and led work on community involvement, advocacy, health promotion and regeneration and health. She set up one of the first large citizen's panels across the NHS and local government. She is now seconded to the Neighbourhood Renewal Unit and the Department of Health (both in central government) to advise on improving health in deprived areas.

Dr. Petra Wilson, European Commission, Directorate-General Information Society

Dr. Matthias Wismar, (1965), German, research fellow, head of the Research Focus on Health Policy, Department of Epidemiology, Social Medicine and Health System Research (Director: Prof. Schwartz), Medical School Hannover, Political Scientist (Frankfurt FRG, Southampton UK, Nuffield College Oxford UK), Member of the Scientific Advisory Committee of the European Health Management Association, Hannover.

Prof. Charles Wolfe, Guys, Kings and St Thomas' School of Medicine, Dept of Public Health, London, UK.

Stephen Wright (1953), British, Economics, Geography, Natural Resources; Division Chief Human

Capital (Health and Education), Projects Directorate, European Investment Bank, Luxembourg; responsible for Bank techno-economic appraisal health and education projects, development of Bank policy in the two sectors, relationships with European Observatory on Health Care Systems, International Hospital Federation, European Union Health Property Network, European Health Management Association; Member Health Economists Study Group.

Dr. Alexandra Wyke (1954) British, Managing Director of PatientView (research and publishing organisation), PhD in biochemistry St George's Medical School in London. 1996-2000 Managing Editor Healthcare Publications, Economist Intelligence Unit. 1983-1996, healthcare correspondent for The Economist. 1996 member of BBC panel to assess science coverage. Author of 21st-Century Miracle Medicine, published by Plenum in 1997. Member of the Health Management Initiative advisory board of INSEAD.

Dr Derek Yach (1955), South African, Medicine, Epidemiology and Public Health; Executive Director, Noncommunicable Diseases and Mental Health, World Health Organization (WHO), Geneva; Member of WHO Cabinet; Finalist, Nelson Mandela Award, Health and Human Rights, 1994; Heath Clark Fellow, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, 1995; Philippa Harris Memorial Lecturer, University of Toronto, 2002

Kasia Anna Zalanowska, 1976, Polish, PhD student at Oxford University, first in International Relations, English Philology (Warsaw University), the Highest Distinction in DEA in International Relations and European Integration, Universite de Liege, scholarships granted throughout the University career, FCO/Chevening scholar in Oxford.

Albert van der Zeijden (1942), Netherlands, didactic, teaching management, Chronns'and Bechterew patient, Vice - Chair Council of the Chronically Ill and the Handicapped in the Netherlands (CG - Council) and chair of the International Alliance of Patients Organisations (IAPO) in London, Member of the Dutch Advisory Council for Health Research.