EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Aaltonen, Katri
University of Turku, Finland

Katri Aaltonen works as Academy of Finland Research Fellow at the University of Turku, INVEST Research Centre, Sociology. Her research areas include pharmaceutical, health and social policy. Currently she is leading research projects focusing on burden of costs of medicines and healthcare on households, and governance in pharmaceutical systems. Prior academia, she has worked as Senior Researcher at the Social Insurance Institution of Finland, where her duties included research and expert work in national and international pharmaceutical policy settings.

Aaltonen holds a MSc (Pharmacy) from the University of Helsinki, Finland, and a PhD (Pharm) from the University of Eastern Finland.