

Baeyens, An

European Commission

An holds a law degree from the Catholic University Leuven, as well as a master of law of the Albert-Ludwig University in Freiburg im Breisgau (Germany). Since 2004 An has been working in the Directorate General Internal Market dealing with several files related to the internal market. Prior to joining the Commission, An has been working as in the area of health law at different places, amongst which as an assistant at the Catholic University of Leuven.

(last updated 28.09.2018)