

Bardone, Corinne

Sanofi

Corinne Bardone is a PharmD specialized in nutrition and vaccines, with more than twenty years of experience in the vaccine field, among which nine years in Public Affairs. She is currently Head of Vaccines Public Affairs for Europe for Sanofi, in charge of the external engagement linked to Sanofi immunization tools portfolio and to transversal topics such as vaccines supply security or sustainability of the vaccine ecosystem in Europe. In addition, she supports Sanofi broad network of European Country Public Affairs leads. She is also committed in various working groups of EFPIA & its vaccine experts group, Vaccines Europe.

Before, she was the global Head of Paediatric Vaccines Public Affairs for Sanofi and the WHO contact for the Global Polio Eradication Initiative. She had notably been Sanofi vaccines spoke-person in various WHO, GAVI and UNICEF meetings and an active member of IFPMA and LEEM. She is also a member of the ADVAC alumni network.