EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Bischoff Ebbesen, Birgitte
International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC)

Ms. Birgitte Bischoff Ebbesen spent more than 15 years working with the Danish Red Cross. She headed the disaster management department and worked as Head of Asia Region, based in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. Since 2014, she was the International Director of Danish Red Cross, and Co-chair of the IFRC Reference Centre for Psychosocial Support in Denmark and member of the British Red Cross/IFRC Cash Advisory Board.

Ms. Bischoff also ran repatriation programmes for the Danish Refugee Council in NW Somalia and Guatemala. She also spent time in Brussels, Belgium working on fundraising and external relations for the UN High Commissioner for Refugees office.

Ms. Bischoff is from Denmark. She holds a Master’s degree in Public Administration from Roskilde University in Denmark as well as a diploma in High-Performance Leadership from the Copenhagen Business School.