Innovation Insights

Jennifer Brant, the CEO and Founder of Innovation Insights S.a.r.l., has worked for more than 20 years on global policy issues. In addition to research and publications, she has spearheaded many policy campaigns, notably in the areas of trade and intellectual property. Jennifer is skilled at making connections across issue areas, in part thanks to her training in international law, economics, and development at UCLA, Johns Hopkins SAIS, and the Graduate Institute. She is an International Gender Champion and mentor to junior public affairs professionals. A Swiss and US citizen, Jennifer lives with her daughters in Vaud, Switzerland.
