

Brax, Tuija

FinHeartAssoc, Board Mem EU Heart Network

Tuija Brax is the Secretary General of the Finnish Heart Association. Prior to her appointment in 2015, she served as a Member of the Finnish Parliament for 20 years and as a Minister of Justice in 2007-2011. Brax holds a degree in law from the University of Helsinki and she has held a number of positions of trust, including the Chair of the advisory board of the Funding Centre for Social Welfare and Health Organisations in Finland and a member of the City Council of Helsinki.