

Clarke, Steve

NHS Wales Executive

Steve Clarke is National Clinical Lead for Mental Health at the NHS Wales Executive, Wales, UK. Steve is a health system leader and mental health practitioner and currently leads the transformation of acute and crisis care and patient safety for Wales. Previously he has been a senior clinician leading service and system redesign, has led UK Government policy on (how health care is planned, early intervention, mental health) and was previously adviser to the UK Parliament select committees on health and social care . He started his nursing career in Ireland and has worked in all four UK Health Systems and beyond.