De Belie, Jan
Pharmaceutical Group of the European Union

Jan De Belie is a Belgian pharmacist working as the Professional Affairs Advisor at the Pharmaceutical Group of the European Union (PGEU), the European association representing community pharmacists. In this role, Jan is responsible for the PGEU activities concerning professional related issues and liaising with PGEU members and stakeholders on these topics.

Before joining PGEU, Jan worked at the Association of Belgian Pharmacists (APB) on several projects concerning international affairs and innovation in the Belgian community pharmacy sector, whilst also working part-time as a community pharmacist in practice. Prior to that he worked as the Vice President of European Affairs for the European Pharmaceutical Students' Association (EPSA), where he represented the views of European pharmacy students in Brussels. In this role, he was also actively engaged in discussions and projects concerning the role of pharmacists in increasing the vaccination coverage in Europe.
