De Ponte, Giulia
Ministry of Health Italy

Giulia De Ponte is International Relation Officer at the Department of One Health and International Relations of the Ministry of Health of Italy. In this role, she works at the intersection between public health and international relations, looking in particular at consolidating the relations of the Ministry of Health with WHO and with the European Union.

She previously worked as a researcher at the Italian Public Health Institute (Istituto Superiore di Sanità), and as Head of Advocacy in different civil society organizations in the UK and in Italy. She holds a Master in Public Health and one in Development Studies. She is in Gastein as a Health Union Fellow.
