

Dehn, Christine

European Heart Network

Member of the European Heart Network (EHN), lobbies patients' interests at EU and national level. She tries to ensure that the patient's voice is heard not only in clinical, but also in scientific, regulatory and political settings. She's been working with patients for 20 years and her professional focus is on patient education and fighting health illiteracy.