Derrough, Tarik
Policy Officer, Medical Countermeasures, DG Health Emergency Preparedness and Response Authority (HERA)

Tarik Derrough is a Policy Officer in the unit “Medical countermeasures” within the Directorate-General for Health Emergency Preparedness and Response Authority of the European Commission. In this position, he is responsible for activities within the Critical Medicines Alliance aiming to strengthening the supply of critical medicines in European Member States.

Before this, Tarik spent 14 years at the European Centre for Disease Prevention and Control in Stockholm focusing on surveillance, epidemic intelligence, outbreak response and scientific advice related to vaccines and vaccine-preventable diseases. His earlier career was in activities including vaccine safety, phase III and phase IV clinical trials of vaccines. Tarik is a pharmacist who later specialised in epidemiology and public health.
