EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Domanski, Filip
European Commission Directorate-General for Health and Food Safety

Filip Domański is Programme Officer in the European Commission's Directorate-General for Health and Food Safety (DG SANTE). He graduated from the University of Warsaw (MA in political science) and from the National School of Public Administration.

He has more than 15 years of experience related to health systems. During that time, he worked for the Ministry of Health in Poland, the Polish Permanent Representation to the EU in Brussels, and EIT Health InnoStars. Overall, he has spent more than seven years in DG SANTE.