

Bech Vizard, Dorte

Danish Ministry of Health

Dorte Bech Vizard is Deputy Permanent Secretary at the Danish Ministry of Health responsible for patient safety, life science and global health. She took up her current role following seven years and various roles at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, including as Denmark's ambassador to Singapore and Brunei, chair of the Danish Trade Council in Southeast Asia, director of the taskforce for export and job creation, and director of Invest in Denmark and Innovation. With a background in law, Dorte also has experience from the private sector as a management consultant with Deloitte Business Consulting.