EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Dozsa, Csaba
University of Miskolc & Municipality of Budapest

Csaba László Dózsa, PhD, MSc, healtheconomist

Associate professor at University of Miskolc Faculty of Health Sciences, Hungary

Schools and scientific degrees:

§In 2022, habilitation procedure at University of Pécs, HU. Topic: Structural Change in the Hungarian healthcare system

§In 2011, PhD on Health Care Management at Corvinus University, Budapest. Dissertation topic: Strategic responses of hospitals to changing environment in Hungary at the beginnings of 2000

§In 1999, MSc on Health Economics and Care Management at Universidad de PompeuFabra, Barcelona, SP. Thesis topic: The New Financial Perspective: the diagnosis based risk adjustedcapitation payment in healthcaresystem

§In 1994, Széchenyi István College, Budapest, social sciences

§In 1994, 1st university degree on economist at Budapest University of Economic Sciences. Thesis topic: Answers to a problem: analysis on the social care institutions for elderly people

Main research areas:

§Structural changes of health care system, investigate of new, innovative health technologies, HTA, development of financial and reimbursement schemes

Work experience – main workplaces:

§Between 2010 – currently: University of Miskolc atFaculty of Health Scences as associate professor, healthcare system analysis, healthcare financing

§Between 2020 – currently: Municipality of Budapest, health policy adviser

§Between: 2006 – currently: Med-Econ Human Service Ltd., former chief executive, now senior health economic analyst. Development of health policy programmes, cost-effectiveness analysis of new health technologies.

§Between 2005-2006, Ministry of Health, position: Deputy Secretary of State on Health and Health Care development. Main responsibilities: supervision of Health Insurance Fund, elaboration of the health care development plan for 2007-2013 period of EU Structural Funds

§Between: 1994-2005, National Health InsuranceFundAdministration (NHIFA), position: deputy director general for health policy and health care, formerly head of units of economics and healthcare services financing, financial referee.

§Occasionally: participation in international projects as health economic or health policy adviser of WHO, World Bank, EU Commission.