

Dünnbier, Maik

Movendi International

Maik, from Cottbus, Germany, is the first ever Director of Strategy and Advocacy in the 170-year long history of Movendi International. He works closely together with our Executive Director and advises our President and International Board on strategic questions and advocacy issues. Maik is a political scientist, advocacy specialist, civil society activist, communication expert, fearless thinker and innovator, a Human Rights defender and humanist. Maik leads Movendi International with creativity, heart-driven passion and critical thinking. Maik's work is guided and inspired by our vision for a world where free and healthy citizens actively contribute in all levels of society.
