

Endevelt, Ronit

MOH Israel

Prof' Ronit Endevelt is the director of the nutrition division in the services of public health in the ministry of health. She is also a senior lecturer in the school of public health in Haifa university. Her expertise are in the field of nutrition and health policy. And nutrition services and health promotion. Most of her publications are in those fields. She leads the nutrition policy in the ministry of health, And is part of international network in malnutrition and nutrition policy in various issues .