

Engl, Christine

Austrian Health Insurance Fund

Mag. Engl, MA, born in Bad Ischl, graduated in law in Salzburg and completed a master's degree in leadership, policy and management at the FH Campus Vienna. She has been Deputy Head of the Health System & Quality Division at the Austrian Health Insurance Fund (ÖGK) since July 2021. Her responsibility is health care strategy. Previously she coordinated relevant parts of the merger of the nine federal health insurance institutions. From 2012 to 2019, she held different management positions at the Federation of Austrian Social Insurance Institutions. Her main areas of work included: Innovation, healthcare reform and strategic steering by Balance scorecard. From 2008 to 2009 she worked in various institutions in Brussels, such as the Federal Chamber of Labour, the Liaison Office of the Province of Upper Austria and for the European Parliament. Mag. Engl, MA is a lecturer for health and social policy at the University of Applied Sciences for Health in Innsbruck.