Evetovits, Tamás
WHO Barcelona Office for Health Systems Financing

Dr. Tamás Evetovits is the Head of the WHO Barcelona Office for Health Systems Financing. He is leading WHO's technical assistance to Member States on health financing in the European Region. In addition to extensive country work on health financing policy, his technical focus of region-wide relevance is on financial protection for universal health coverage and the sustainability of financing health systems in Europe. He has extensive experience in training and consultancy in health financing policy and capacity building in countries of Central and Eastern Europe. He is a medical doctor by training and holds two MSc degrees in health policy and management from Semmelweis University (Budapest) and the University of London.
