

Gijssels, Stefan

Stefan Gijssels is Executive Director and Board Member of EuropaColon, the European umbrella organisation of digestive cancer patients in Europe. He is a cancer survivor.

Stefan also acts as a health policy advisor, moderator and coach, working for public health authorities, patient organisations and industry. Until February 2016, he was Vice President Communication & Public Affairs at the Janssen Pharmaceutical Companies of Johnson & Johnson, with responsibility for the EMEA region. He was member of the EMEA Leadership Team and of the Global Communication Leadership Team. He was also leading the company's global reputation programme and the global patient-advocacy workstream. For many years, Stefan was Chairman of the Trust & Reputation Policy Committee of the European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industry and Associations (EFPIA), and Chairman of the Communications Committee of the Confederation of Belgian Industries (VBO/FEB). He was Vice-Chairman of the Belgian Federal Science Policy Council.

He was consultant at Burson-Marsteller and Weber-Shandwick, Public Affairs Manager at McDonald's, Project Manager at the Institute of the Enterprise and English teacher in Morocco. He has a degree in linguistics and literature from the University of Leuven, Belgium.

(last updated 28.09.2018)