International Movement MHPSS Hub

Ganna Goloktionova is a Mental Health and Psychosocial Support (MHPSS) Specialist and Regional Advisor for Europe and Central Asia at the International Movement MHPSS Hub. She supports Red Cross and Red Crescent National Societies in strengthening their capacity to integrate mental health into emergency response and community-based programs, addressing the psychological impacts of armed conflict, forced displacement, and natural disasters. With a background in Social Sciences, she brings extensive experience in MHPSS across emergency, displacement, and conflict settings.
