

Habicht, Triin

Estonian Health Insurance Fund

Triin Habicht is an international health financing consultant. She was a Head of Health System Development at the MoSA from 2015-2017. Prior to that she was a Head of Department of Health Care at the Estonian Health Insurance Fund where she worked since 2006. Previously she worked as the Head of Health Policy Unit in the Public Health Department at the MoSA (2004-2006) and as a health economist at the Estonian Health Insurance Fund (2001-2003). Her work has been mainly focused on all aspects of health system financing including development of different payment and contracting schemes for health care providers but also assessment of new health technologies, enhancement of health care quality assurance system and transforming hospital and primary health care provider network. She has been teaching health economics and health financing policy at the University of Tartu. Triin Habicht has been working with the World Health Organization and the World Bank in the areas of health systems, health financing policy and hospital governance.