EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Jesse, Maris
Ministry of Social Affairs, Estonia

Maris Jesse is an Estonian health expert and consultant, who most recently held the position of advisor to the Estonian Minister of Health and Labour. She has served as a top civil servant responsible for the health sector in the Estonian Ministry of Social Affairs; Director of the Estonian National Public Health Institute (NIHD); and CEO of the Estonian Health Insurance Fund. She also worked in the World Bank as a senior health specialist. Dr. Jesse served as a Member of the WHO Executive Board from 2009 - 2012.

Dr. Jesse holds a medical degree from Tartu University, Estonia and a MSc from London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine and London School of Economics and Political Science.