

Kalėdienė, Ramunė

Lithuanian University of Health Sciences

Prof. Ramunė Kalėdienė, MD, MPH, PhD, Dr Habil, Head of the Dept. of Health Management at Lithuanian University of Health Sciences (LUHS), president of Lithuanian Public Health Association, member of the National Board of Health at the Lithuanian Parliament, served as expert for COVID-19 management at the Government of Lithuania and President of Lithuania. She is a member of the Governing Council and Scientific Committee of European Public Health Association. In 2002-2022 she worked as a Dean of the Faculty of Public Health at LUHS. Ramune Kalediene serves as expert of the accreditation of programmes of public health for European region and beyond in the framework of the activities of Accreditation Agency for Public Health Education for European Union (APHEA). She is also a member of the Board of Accreditation of APHEA and Executive Board member of ASPHER. She worked as expert of ASPHER for developing schools of Public Health and quality of training in Georgia, Russia, Kazakhstan, Syria, Bulgaria, Moldova and several other countries. Scientific interests cover socio-demographic inequalities in health and health care, authoring or co-authoring several textbooks and more than 400 scientific publications. In 2022, she was awarded with the cross of the Knight of the Order of the Lithuanian Grand Duke Gediminas for active involvement in health policy formulation of Lithuania.