EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Kalėdienė, Ramunė
Lithuanian University of Health Sciences

Prof. Ramunė Kalėdienė, MD, MPH, PhD, Head of the Dept. of Health Management at Lithuanian University of Health Sciences (LUHS), president of Lithuanian Public Health Association, served as expert for COVID-19 management at the Government of Lithuania and President of Lithuania. She is a member of the Governing Council and Scientific Committee of European Public Health Association (EUPHA). In 2002-2022 she worked as a Dean of the Faculty of Public Health at LUHS. Ramune Kalediene serves as expert of the accreditation of programs of public health at the global level in the framework of the activities of the Agency for Public Health Education Accreditation (APHEA). She is a member of the Board of Accreditation of APHEA and Executive Board member and Public Health Diplomacy lead at the Association of Schools of Public Health in the European Region (ASPHER). She worked as expert of ASPHER for developing schools of Public Health and quality of training in Georgia, Russia, Kazakhstan, Syria, Bulgaria, Moldova and several other countries. Scientific interests cover socio-demographic inequalities in health and health care, authoring or co-authoring several textbooks and more than 400 scientific publications.