

Keller, Ingrid

European Commission Directorate-General for Health and Food Safety

Ingrid is a public health specialist by training. After working 7 years for the World Health Organization in Geneva, Ingrid joined the Public Health Executive Agency of the European Commission in 2006 working on the implementation of the European Health Programme. In 2014 she joined DG SANTE to work on the Health Programme and on non-communicable diseases. In 2019 she decided to switch to communicable diseases and joined DG SANTE's Health Security Unit. She was nominated Head of the Health Security Unit in summer 2021.