EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Kronig Romero, Nora
Federal Office for Public Health, Switzerland

Ambassador for Global Health Nora Kronig Romero is Vice-Director General of the Federal Office of Public Health and heads the International Affairs Division.

As a diplomat, she worked in the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs (FDFA) for more than 10 years. Her last position was Deputy Head of the Multilateral division at the Permanent Mission of Switzerland to the United Na- tions Office at Geneva. Before that, she worked as Chief of Staff of the State Secretary for Foreign Affairs Yves

Rossier (2012-2016) and as diplomatic assistant of the State Secretary Peter Maurer (2010-2012), among other positions.

She holds a degree in economics from the University of St. Gallen.

(last updated 28.09.2018)