

Lincoln, Paul

UK Health Forum

Paul Lincoln has worked in public health at local, national and international levels for nearly 40 years. He has been Chief Executive of the UK Health Forum and a Director of a National Agency . He served on numerous Government and scientific expert public health advisory groups including the Board of Public Health England and is a standing Chair of the National Institute of Health and Care Excellence Public Health Advisory Committee. He was awarded an OBE and is a Honorary Fellow/member of many public health organisations including the RCP and a Visiting professor.

(last update 02.10.2018)