

Lysenko, Olha

Latvian Red Cross

Olha Lysenko is a humanitarian professional with over three years of experience in project management at the Latvian Red Cross. She was a member of the Emergency Response Team at the Ukrainian Red Cross since 2018, before becoming a displaced person and continuing her humanitarian mission in Latvia. At LatRC, she has led initiatives on migrant support, community resilience, and psychosocial aid, including Psychological First Aid (PFA) programmes for displaced populations. Olha has strong skills in stakeholder coordination, volunteer engagement, and community-based project implementation. She is passionate about building inclusive support systems that empower vulnerable groups and strengthen social cohesion.
