

Magaña, Laura

Association of Schools and Programs of Public Health

An accomplished and passionate senior academic leader who for more than 30 years has delivered breakthrough results in international settings. A decisive executive, with proven success in transforming and innovating educational organizations. An inspiring and motivational leader with first-rate interpersonal skills with the ability to move organizations forward leveraging individuals' strengths and capabilities with a strong foundation on values and ethics.

- Visionary, innovative and decisive executive, highly motivated and strategic.
- Results-oriented; creative in crafting evidence-based strategies; solves and takes opportunities to strengthen and promote education, research, practice and service.
- Passionate leader with proven ability to build and motivate multidisciplinary teams.
- Strong communicator, advocate and diplomat, who interacts respectfully and effectively with individuals across sectors and cultures, to build global strategic alliances and key partnerships.