

Rojnić Kuzman, Martina

European Psychiatric Association

Professor Martina Rojnić Kuzman, MD, PhD, psychiatrist, psychotherapist, affiliated with the Zagreb School of Medicine and Department of Psychiatry Clinic of Zagreb University Hospital Centre Zagreb.

She is a member of the Board and Executive Committee of the European Psychiatric Association section since 2016, and secretary general of the Croatian Psychiatric Association. Previously, after she was active as early career psychiatrist, being the president of the European Federation of Psychiatry Trainees and presided over the Young Psychiatrists Committee of the European Psychiatric Association (EPA).

She has published approximately 100 scientific articles and book chapters, and she serves as the editor for journals such as European Psychiatry and International Journal of Mental Health Systems. She oversees several international/ EU projects in the field of mental health, also as the representative of the EPA.