

Monti, Mario

Pan-European Commission on Health and Sustainable Development

Mario Monti is President of Bocconi University, former Prime Minister of Italy, former European Commissioner and Italian Senator for life. In August 2020 he was appointed Chairman of the “Pan-European Commission on Health and Sustainable Development: Rethinking Policy Priorities in the light of Pandemics”, convened by WHO/Europe. He was Prime Minister of Italy (2011-2013) and Minister of Economy and Finance (2011-2012), leading a government of national unity, which overcame the financial crisis, initiated structural reforms, and obtained vital improvements in Euro-area governance. As European Commissioner for the Single Market (1995-1999) and Competition (1999-2004), Professor Monti fostered market integration while promoting tax coordination, and sanctioned high-profile cases of abuses of dominance, anticompetitive mergers, and illegal state aids.
