Morgan, Nicholas
Euro Youth Mental Health

Nicholas Morgan is a specialist mental health youth worker, and Co-Founder and Director of Euro Youth Mental Health. Based in the UK, Nick is trained in various intervention techniques for working with young people and mental ill-health. Nick has over 15 years' experience and in recent years has been focussing on youth participation and training, working for various organisations in the UK such as YoungMinds and the Anna Freud Centre. As well as his roles in the UK, Nick's role for Euro Youth Mental, the only Europe wide, youth focussed mental health organisation in the region, ensuring young people's voices are heard on this topic across the continent has kept him busy. Nick also took part as a Young Gasteiner program in 2018.
