

Mussa, Reem

Medecins sans Frontieres

Reem Mussa is a Humanitarian Advisor on Forced Migration at Medecins Sans Frontieres/ Doctors without Borders (MSF) focusing on the humanitarian impact of displacement, asylum and migration policies. Reem supports MSF operations in terms of humanitarian analysis and research, design of projects and advocacy, specifically for operations in Europe, North Africa and Middle East. She has also served as the Humanitarian Affairs and Advocacy Coordinator in MSF COVID-19 Emergency Taskforce based in Brussels.