

Edwards, Nigel

European Observatory on Health Systems and Policies

Nigel Edwards is an independent health policy expert working as an advisor with WHO and a number of UK organisations on health policy, planning and change management with a particular interest in the future of primary care and hospitals. He is a Senior Expert Advisor to the European Observatory on Health Systems and Policies.

Nigel was Chief Executive at the Nuffield Trust from 2013 to 2023. He has a long career in health policy and working on innovation and change in healthcare delivery and in providing challenging analysis on health policy. He has a strong interest in using different disciplines to inform health policy.

He has worked for the King's Fund, KPMG's global health practice and the NHS Confederation where he was Director of Policy for 11 years. Prior to that he worked at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, where he remains an honorary visiting professor. He is also an Honorary Professor at the Health Services Management Centre at Birmingham University.