

Nitzan, Dorit

WHO Regional Office for Europe

Dorit Nitzan is the WHO Regional Emergencies Director. She joined WHO in 2005 and held different senior positions, and the teams led by her received UN and WHO's awards. Dorit is a pediatrician, nutritionist and an epidemiologist. She completed her medical school in Tel Aviv University, nutrition at the Hebrew University and specialty and MPH at Columbia University, NYC, USA.