

Portugal, Rui

Directorate General of Health, Portugal

Rui Portugal, MD. MSc. Public Health Specialist. He is the Deputy Director of Health in Portugal. He was the Coordinator of the National Health Plan and Health Authority in Lisbon. He was responsible for the Residency in Public Health for young doctors. He was the President of the Executive Board of the Regional Health Administration of Lisbon and Tagus Valley and member of the Executive Board of the National Institute of Health in Portugal. He founded and was the President of Medecins du Monde in Portugal. He teaches Public Health and related matters at the Medical School of the University of Lisbon Graduated as a Master of Science at the LSHTM in London and as an Hospital Administrator at the National School of Public Health in Lisbon and has a Post-Graduation in Public Health and Tropical Medicine at the Institute of Tropical Medicine of Lisbon.