EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Raudsepp, Kristin
State Agency of Medicines

Has graduated the University in Tartu as a physician - general practitioner. Has been working in the Estonian drug regulatory agency from 1994, from 2002 Director General of the Estonian State Agency of Medicines.

- Estonian representative in the EMA Management Board since 2004;
- Estonian representative in the Pharmaceutical Committee, European Commission;
- Expert for World Health Organization in the field of regulation of medicinal products (2011, 2013)
- Lead for Priority (Availability of appropriately authorised medicines) in the HMA MAWP
- Co-chair of the HMA/EMA Task Force of the availability of authorised medicines (TF AAM)

Kristin Raudsepp has been the leader in international working groups (Heads of Medicines Agencies, Task Force of Availability of Medicinal products, HMA/EMA strategy 2020 lead for priority theme Availability of appropriately authorised medicinal products), theme leader and member of the organizational committee of international conferences (DIA Euromeeting, ICDRA, PERF), team leader of international working groups (Heads of Medicines Agencies Management Group) and is having lots of experience as a speaker and session chair at international conferences.

In 2013 she was chosen by the SCRIP Intelligence as one of the 100 persons affecting the area of medicines in the world.