EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Rekhis, Syrine
Voicify – The European Forum for Youth with Lived Migration Experiences

Syrine Rekhis (She/Her): Medical Doctor, Educator, Researcher and Activist.

As the current President of “Voicify – The European Forum for Youth with Lived Migration Experience”, she advocates for the right to political participation of people with lived migration experiences. She has more than 13 years of experience in defending human rights and democracy, founding and leading organisations and projects with a focus on education, health and advocacy.

As a researcher, she addressed the realities of equal access to health care services, the access to valid health information, the relationship patient-health practitioner, in addition to her current work on bio-psychology and neuroscience, as a research associate and PhD candidate.

As an Educator of Citizenship Education and Advocacy, she produced several educational tools and delivered more than 3000 hours of training sessions and workshops with SALTO, UNESCO, Goethe Institute, Academy of policy research-CAP-Munich, New Tactics in Human Rights, IFMSA, AEGEE Europe and others since 2012.