

Schwierz, Christoph
European Commission

Christoph Schwierz, Dr. rer. pol. (PhD Economics), is currently Deputy Head of Unit 'Labour Market, Health and Social Services' in the Structural Reform Support Service of the European Commission, where he is helping EU countries to design and carry out structural reforms in the health sector; he previously worked on assessing the fiscal sustainability of health systems in the Directorate General for Economic and Financial Affairs of the European Commission; In the past, he did research on health economics in the Belgian Health Care Knowledge Cen-ter, the Rhine-Westphalian Research Institute for Economic Research in Germany, Health Economics Bergen in Norway and the Netherlands Interdisciplinary Demographic Institute in The Hague. He has published in Health Economics and other peer-reviewed journals.