

Schwoerer, Antoine

French Ministry of Solidarity and Health

Antoine Schwoerer is the Head of International Affairs at the French Health Crisis Centre and also advisor for Global Health and Security/Defence Preparedness to the General Director of Health, at the French Ministry of Solidarity and Health. Previously he worked as an advisor on Health and Environment for the Minister of Health. He has worked with WHO, European Commission, G7, G20, Global Health Security Initiative and on bilateral cooperation issues. He has also worked for the French Ministry of the Environment on chemical products, pesticides and vector disease control. He is a specialist in risk management.