

Skerendovska, Sebihana

National Roma Centrum, Macedonia

Sebihana Skenderovska is a Romani activist since 1997 she was member of a local Roma NGO, working with women and youth. Since 2005 she is the cofounder with the group of Roma and non Roma activist working on human rights to establish the CSO National Roma Centrum. Since 2007 she started to run the health program of National Roma Centrum working mainly on sexual and reproductive health and rights. Her educational background is Graduated teacher of Macedonian and South-Slavic literature and Macedonian language.

(last updated 20.09.2017)