Slobodnichenko, Maryna
Ukraine

Since April 2023, Maryna Slobodnichenko (LLM, MBA), is Deputy Minister of Health of Ukraine for European integration.

Education

- In 2002, she graduated from Taras Shevchenko National Kyiv University with a Master's degree in Law.
- In 2021, she completed her second higher education degree at Kyiv National University of Trade and Economics, Master of Management.
- From 2020 to 2021, she studied at the University of Guglielmo Marconi (Italy), and completed a master degree in the international MBA programme.

Postgraduate education

- In 2018, she completed a course of educational seminars on international humanitarian law at the Institute of Legislation of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine.
- In 2019, she completed the training course "Health care issues in legislation" (Open World leadership center, USA).

Professional activity

- From 2001 to 2018, she worked as a lawyer in a private company and partner at the law firm.
- From 2018 to 2023, she continued her legal practice as the head of her own law firm, where she provided legal support for the adaptation of Ukrainian healthcare legislation to the provisions of the European Union acquis.
- Since April, 2023, she is Deputy Minister of Health of Ukraine for European integration.

Social activities

- Provided legal and coordination support to the state programme for relocation of businesses from the areas close to the military operations to restore production facilities in western Ukraine.
- Provided legal support to the Board of Trustees of the Okhmatdyt National Children's Hospital.
- Participated in the development of methodological recommendations "Transplant coordinator as the main link in the transplantation system".
- Participated in the development of guidelines for the implementation of public-private partnership projects in the healthcare sector.
- She headed the Medical Law Committee of the Ukrainian Bar Association in 2018-2021.