EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Stålhammar, Hannu
Ministry of Social Affairs, Finland

Special Adviser, Ministry of Social Affairs and Health, Department for Work and Gender Equality, Policy Unit, FI-00023 Government, Finland

He served as research activities at the Finnish Institute of Occupational Health (FIOH), Biomechanics Laboratory from 1981 to 1991. His primary research has focused on ergonomics, occupational biomechanics and moreover psychophysics in manual materials handling. He has published over hundred scientific, general articles in international journals, international scientific conference proceedings and national occupational journals. After the FIOH's career he is acting at the Ministry of Social Affairs and Health, Department for Work and Gender Equality. His duties are focused on Occupational Safety and Health strategy and development, as well as on international affairs in EU - a longest time in EU-OSHA's focal area. His hobby is a board member and treasurer of the Finnish Spine Research Society.

(last updated 03.10.2017)