Teufel, Anna
Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Digital Health and Patient Safety

Anna Teufel has been working as a research associate in a multidisciplinary team at the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Digital Health and Patient Safety and heads the office of the Austrian Patient Safety Network since 2020 and was involved in the founding of the Austrian Patient Council (Österreichischer Patient:innenbeirat) in 2022. Before that, she worked at the Department of Sociology at the University of Vienna. In several studies, she dealt with the expectations of Austrian healthcare on the one hand and the involvement of older people in health promotion projects on the other.

Anna has a Master's degree in Sociology and is currently working on her PhD in Public Health. In various projects, she mainly focuses on issues of improving patient and staff safety, digital tools in healthcare and ways to engage and empower patients.
