EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Mahieu, Virginia
Centre for Future Generations

Virginia Mahieu is the Neurotechnology Director at the Centre for Future Generations (CFG), where she explores the societal, ethical, and legal implications of advances in neurotechnology, and works to ensure it supports wellbeing and brain health while safeguarding the rights and freedoms of its users. Virginia holds a PhD in sensory neuroscience, and previously worked as a Policy Analyst at the European Parliamentary Research Service focusing on public health, emerging technologies, and futures thinking