Tired of Cancer

Mrs Door Vonk MA is a digital health entrepreneur and founding partner of Tired of Cancer (ToC). Having started her career at a bank, Door has accumulated over 25 years of experience in fundraising, financial and communication management of health-related organisations. She left her own consultancy firm after ten years to dedicate her full attention and skills to ToC. ToC is the producer of the Untire app, a program to help cancer patients who suffer from multiple side effects of cancer and its treatment, such as fatigue, depression and anxiety.
