EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Walch, Siegfried
Management Center Innsbruck

Siegfried Walch, Professor of Social and Health Management, Management Center Innsbruck, Austria

Professor & Head of department - Development of "The European Master in Health Economics & Management" (Joint Master Program with Erasmus University Rotterdam, University of Oslo & University of Bologna, launched in 2012).

His area of work includes Curriculum development and coordination of degree programs: International Health Care Management, Communication Management; Nonprofit, Social and Health Care Management; Co-design und coordination of the executive fora: Annual Winter School on Health Leadership. Annual Conference of the European Health Management Association in 2009 - Management Center Innsbruck - The Entrepreneurial School.
1996 – 2009 - Co-founder and managing partner - Consulting & Leadership Training - SVWP Communication Management Ltd.
1994 – 1996 - Consultant - Consulting projects for several public authorities (in combination with empirical research for the doctoral thesis) - Freelance
1988 – 1994- Member of an interdisciplinary research group - Activities included applied research and consulting projects for communities & regions; public relations and conception/organization of conferences and seminars. - Institute for Geographie, University of Innsbruck

/last updated 1.10.2017/