Williams, Leo
European Anti-Poverty Network

Leo Williams is the Director of the European Anti-Poverty Network, (EAPN) the largest European network of national, regional and local networks, involving anti-poverty NGOs and grassroot groups as well as European Organisations, active in the fight against poverty and social exclusion.
Previously he was the Director of Beyond 2015, a global campaign of over 1500 CSOs from more than 140 countries pushing for a transformative and ambitious post-2015 agenda, for nearly five years.
He previously worked at Bond, the UK platform for international development organisations and the Scotland Malawi Partnership. He has worked extensively on issues of peace and justice in the Middle East, notably focusing on the relationship between Jewish and Arab citizens of Israel during his role as Manager of the UK Friends of the Abraham Fund Initiatives.
More recently he has also undertaken consultancy roles with organisations such as the United Nations, Sightsavers and Transparency International.
