

Winberg, Hans

Leading Health Care Foundation

Hans Winberg holds a PhLic in public management from the Stockholm School of Economics. He has worked in the intersection between academia and practice first at the Executive Education at SSE, and since 2010 in the Leading Health Care Foundation, founded by SSE. He participates as an expert advisor in both Sweden at all levels and in Europe. Hans has EU/DG Santé, European Observatory, EFPIA, OECD among others. LHC is an academic think tank working with applied research around policy, governance, leadership and organization in the healthcare and care sectors. The aim is to gather all relevant actors to explore value creation in combinations.
